Undesirable telecasts by cable network

4114. SHRI T.T.V DHINAKARAN: Will the Minister of INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government are aware of the fact that a lot of undesirable telecasts, particularly with regard to children are carried through cable television network;

(b) whether Government would launch a cable network in the country and carry only censored channels/programmes that could be viewed by all including children; and

(c) if not, whether Government would consider inviting private operators to launch such cable network?

THE MINISTER OF INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING (SHRI S. JAIPAL REDDY): (a) Concerns have been expressed from time to time about telecasts unsuitable for children. All programmes and advertisements carried in the cable service are required to adhere to the Programme Code and Advertising Code prescribed under the Cable Television Networks (Regulation) Act, 1995 and rules framed thereunder. The Programme Code, inter alia, prohibits programmes which offends against good taste or decency and prescribes that:

> Care should be taken to ensure that programmes meant for children do not contain any bad language or explicit scenes of violence.

> Programmes unsuitable for children must not be carried in the cable service at times when the largest numbers of children are viewing.

Advertising Code prescribes that advertisement which:

> endangers the safety of children or creates in them any interest in unhealthy practices or shows them begging or in an undignified or indecent manner shall not be carried in the cable service.

> Indecent, vulgar, suggestive, repulsive or offensive themes or treatment shall be avoided in all advertisements.

(b) Government has no proposal to launch any such cable network. Doordarshan, the public service broadcaster, already telecasts number of programmes suitable for viewing by all, including children.

(c) There is no such proposal before the Government.
